

Jesse Huebner Counseling, LLC
Sliding Fee Policy, Application, and Rates as of 10.1.22

Policy

It is the policy of Jesse Huebner Counseling, LLC to make available counseling and coaching services to individuals, couples, or families who are unable to pay full rate due to financial limitations. The sliding fee discount is based upon household income, number of dependents, and the federal poverty line. Nothing in this policy guarantees that a discount will be given.

The sliding fee discount will apply to all services provided by Jesse Huebner Counseling, but not to services which are purchased from outside, such as referrals for psychometric testing, assessments, second opinions, consultation, or any other such service. If approved, your sliding fee discount will take effect immediately and expire one year from the below effective date. You can reapply for the sliding fee scale as many times as needed. If your income level increases or decreases before the discount expires, please let your counselor know.

If you would like to be considered for a sliding fee discount, please complete the below application and provide it to your counselor. You may also reach out to talk about this policy if you have any questions before applying.

Application

Total Household Income: _____ annually/monthly/bi-weekly/weekly (circle one)
Number of individuals dependent on this income: _____

Note: Include income from all sources including gross wages, tips, social security, disability, pensions, annuities, veterans payments, net business or self-employment, alimony, child support, military, unemployment, and public aid.

I certify that the total household income and number of dependents shown above are accurate and true. Copies of tax returns, pay stubs, and other information verifying income may be required before a discount is approved.
